I feel as though I must be going mad. It doesn't look as though we were putting any limit on ESL courses except that they had to be taking at least one allowable credit to go with it. I am not sure now where that 45 came from, or whether I was ignoring it' lost in the forest of the data. The 30 I know I followed, but the other figure it seems as though non. of the 46 went over, but [REDACTED] did go over 45.

I am sorry. I don't exactly remember why this, but it will come to me.
